Hi Mr. Murphy,

We recently received notification of Amazon regarding counterfeit Medline perineal bottles. We purchase Medline Perineal bottles from Health Products for You. I would be happy to provide our account rep name or invoices as proof of purchase.

Please advise whether you would be willing to remove the notice of violation against our Seller Account on the basis of proof of purchase from one of your authorized distributors.

We would, of course, be fine with purchasing these items as well as the full line catalog of Medline products directly from Medline if there was an opportunity to do so.

Thanks!
James

Hi.

Following up on this issue as it remains unresolved.

Please advise who would be an appropriate point of contact to discuss this matter further.

Thanks!
